

Fold line

Honoring My Parents

I use a respectful, friendly voice when I talk to my parents.

YES                      NO                      Needs more work

I do not pout when corrected.

YES                      NO                      Needs more work

I find ways to help my family without being asked.

YES                      NO                      Needs more work

I do not grumble when I do my work.

YES                      NO                      Needs more work

I say please and thank-you.

YES                      NO                      Needs more work

I obey immediately.

YES                      NO                      Needs more work

I am usually cheerful so I will be a blessing via my attitude.

YES                      NO                      Needs more work

My parents can trust me to get assigned jobs done.

YES                      NO                      Needs more work

I honor my parent's sacrifices by helping to take care of the items in our home.

YES                      NO                      Needs more work

I speak respectfully about my parents to my friends and siblings.

YES                      NO                      Needs more work

I do nice things for my parents like: give them a hug, pick mom a flower, get dad a glass of water, etc.

YES                      NO                      Needs more work

What I will do today to honor my parents :

What I am really going to work on this week to show my parents honor :